Subject: Decision on appeal under the Right to Information Act, 2005

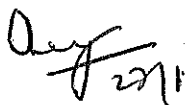

Sir,

Please refer to your letters dated 2.8.2012, received on 06.8.2012, preferring an appeal under the Right to Information Act, 2005.

2. It is observed that you made a right to information application dated 29.5.2012 addressed to CPIO, PMO, received on 4.6.2012 and another RTI application dated 6.7.2012, received on transfer from Planning Commission on 10.7.2012, seeking information relating to pension benefit claimed by PM or any present or past MP under the scheme of United Nations, World Bank, International Monetary Fund or any international agency.

3. The CPIO, PMO, vide office memorandum dated 6.6.2012, in the first instance, transferred the application in respect of point no. 1 to the Rajya Sabha Secretariat, Lok Sabha Secretariat and in respect of point no.2. (a) to (f) to the Department of Economic Affairs under section 6(3) of the Act. Subsequently, after receiving inputs from the office, the CPIO, PMO, vide letter dated 3.7.2012, furnished response to you as under:

4. In the appeal, you have claimed that the information should be with the Prime Minister's Office and should be provided to you as soon as possible without transferring or delaying it any further.

5. As per Right to Information Act, 2005, information is required to be provided on the basis of records available or held by the public authority. In this regard, your attention is invited to the CPIO's letter dated 3.7.2012, whereby it was communicated that the information sought is not a part of records held by this office. Therefore, the contention regarding availability and supply of sought for information is ruled out.

6. Therefore, no action is called for on your appeal, which is disposed of hereby.
