

Analysis of Financial Assets of Council of Ministers of Rajasthan (based on the annual declarations made in 2012)

Summary and Highlights:

- A Letter dated 17th December, 2009 from the Union Home Ministry was sent to the Rajasthan Government that asked for the introduction of a mechanism for annual declaration of assets by the Council of Ministers.
- The Rajasthan Government agreed to the communication from the Union Home Ministry dated 21st January, 2010 regarding the Code of Conduct of Ministers. According to this letter from the Home Ministry, Ministers are now supposed to disclose particulars of all immovable properties and the total approximate value of (1) shares and debentures, (2) cash holdings and (3) jewellery pertaining to themselves and their family members.
- As per Para 1 of the Code of Conduct for Ministers, Ministers are required to furnish a Statement of Assets and Liabilities, and business interests of himself and his family members, immediately after entering office, and in any case within a period of two months from the date of assumption of office. This applies to Ministers of State Government and Union Territories also. As per Para 2(a) of the Code of Conduct for Ministers, "a Minister shall furnish annually by the 31st of August to the Prime Minister, or the Chief Minister, as the case may be, a declaration regarding his assets and liabilities for the previous Financial Year."

National Election Watch (NEW) has analyzed asset declarations of all those 23 Ministers of Rajasthan who made asset declarations in 2012. (Asset declarations of 4 Council of Ministers for 2012 are unavailable namely Brij Kishore Sharma, Bharat Singh, Mangeelal Garasia and Rajendra Singh Guda)

From our analysis of the annual Asset Declarations of the Rajasthan Council of Ministers, 3 points have stood out:

- There is no standard format (similar to the ECI's format for affidavits to be submitted by contesting candidates at the time of nominations for elections) according to which annual asset declarations are made by Ministers. This provides the opportunity to a Minister to use his own discretion in declaring assets. For example, most of the Ministers have not been declaring the assets belonging to their spouse and dependents.
- Even the assets that the Ministers do declare in their annual declarations, the rupee value for lots of these assets (eg. Plots of land, building, shops, and vehicles) are not declared specifically.
- In some cases Assets that have been declared by the Ministers 2008 are altogether missing from their latest declarations.

Crorepati Ministers

Prima facie almost all the Ministers, for whom the self-declared information regarding assets has been analyzed, appear crorepatis. It is difficult to assess the current value (in Rupees) of the assets possessed by these Ministers because they have not declared the Rupee Value of the many assets like landholdings, buildings, vehicles etc.

Liabilities

Only 6 out of the 23 Ministers analyzed have declared that they have liabilities. The 17 other Ministers have not declared any liabilities.

Ministers who have declared liabilities

The top three Ministers with highest declared liabilities are (in decreasing order): Babu Lal Nagar, (MOS(Independent) for Khadi and dairy) who has declared the highest liabilities worth Rs. 1.18 Crores, followed by Mahendrajeet Singh Malviya (Minister of Tribal Area Development and Rural Development) with liabilities of Rs. 44.32 Lakhs and Aimaduddin Ahmad (Minister of Medical and Health, Family Welfare) with liabilities of Rs. 38.29 Lakhs.

Ministers displaying higher degree of transparency

Out of the 23 Council of Ministers analyzed, 5 Ministers have even declared their income by making their Income Tax Returns document public. They are, Murali Lal Meena (MOS(Independent) for Technical Education and PWD), who declared his income to be Rs. 6.58 Lakh, Dr. Rajkumar Sharma (MOS(Independent) for Science and Technology) who declared his income to be Rs. 5.08 Lakhs, Rajendra Pareek (Minister of Industry) who declared his income to be Rs. 4.82 Lakh, Hema Ram Chaudhury (Minister of Revenue) who declared his income to be Rs. 3.02 Lakhs, and Virendra Beniwal (MOS for Home and Transport(Independent)) who declared his income to be Rs. 2.04 Lakhs.
