Foreword

The electorate making an informed and discreet choice in the elections is what makes democracy meaningful. Ready availability of information on candidates' educational and professional profile, assets and liabilities position, and pendency of criminal cases against them, if any, helps the electorate take a judicious decision. Election Commission of India has been helping the electorate in this regard by hosting affidavits of all the candidates online.

Transparency is the key to clean elections, a pre-requisite for good governance. Association of Democratic Reforms (ADR), as a civil society, has been promoting electoral transparency and reformation for the last nearly two decades. One of its popular platforms myneta.info helps the electorate track the criminal, financial and educational information of the candidates; income-expenditure statement of various political parties; and donations above Rs.20,000 received by national and regional political parties. The association also conducts various studies related to trends in transparency and accountability in elections.

Such data assumes archival value for researcher and decision makers after the elections have concluded. The association has, therefore, come out with its publication "Lok Sabha Election Watch, 2019". It inter alia contains the background details of candidates especially the winners; funds raised and expenditure made by national political parties, vote share of the contestants etc.

This report, I am sure, will act as a good reference material on the General Election, 2019 and the resultant 17th Lok Sabha.

Introduction

Chapter 1: Introduction

This volume is a collection of reports of Election Watch conducted in all 29 States and 7 Union Territories during the Lok Sabha 2019 elections in India. The Lok Sabha elections were held in the months of April and May 2019 in seven phases. Association for Democratic Reforms and National Election Watch, a conglomeration of more than 1200 NGOs across India, launched a nation-wide campaign called 'Mera Vote Mera Desh'. The objective of the campaign was to reduce the influence of crime and money in elections and to promote ethical and informed voting. Details about the 'Mera Vote Mera Desh' campaign are given towards the end of the book.

The Election Watch chapters in each state conducted awareness programs across their state engaging with the voters through the medium of street plays, workshops, seminars, rallies etc. They were also instrumental in the dissemination of data related to the criminal, financial and other background details of the candidates and MPs from the affidavits through timely press releases to the media.

The Election Commission of India (ECI) was prompt in uploading the affidavits of the candidates in each constituency on their website. Orders were given by the ECI to make available affidavits within 24 hours of nomination and the online uploading of the affidavits made the process of accessing them a lot easier. The Election Watch team in Delhi and the respective State Election Watch chapters co-ordinated with the respective Chief Electoral Officers and the ECI throughout the Lok Sabha elections and their response was very helpful.

- Quiz: To engage with the voters on our social media platforms, we initiated ADR Quizzes which are based on facts related to Indian Democracy and ADR Reports. Links to few of the quizzes are listed below:
 - How aware are you about the candidates contesting in Phase 4 of Lok Sabha Elections 2019?
 - How well you know Indian Democracy?
 - How aware are you about NONE OF THE ABOVE \(NOTA\)?
 - How aware are you about the Women in Indian politics?
 - How aware are you about Electoral Bonds?
 - How aware are you about the new 2019 Cabinet Ministers?

Below is the summary status of the above 6 quizzes:

 - <https://www.facebook.com/watch/?v=816930748688194>
 - <https://www.facebook.com/watch/?v=698826753906934>
- #MeraVoteMeraDeshChallenge: As one of our social media strategies, we ran a challenge on social media platforms (Facebook and Twitter) called #MeraVoteMeraDeshChallenge. Under the challenge, voters were encouraged to post (text/video), expressing what kind of Neta they want, on their social media handles using #MeraVoteMeraDeshChallenge, and also challenging their friends and family to do the same.

Grassroots Public Awareness Campaigns strategy

For Public Awareness campaigns at the grassroot-level, ADR employs several interactive strategies for spreading messages in a manner which is impactful and creates visual impression on the minds of the audience.

Some common approaches used by several state election watch teams include:

1. Organizing theme based rallies or marathons such as Halloween rally with participants dressed up as ghosts and shouting slogans like - "paisa daru unka hathiyaar, nahi chalega abkibaar".
2. Using vehicles for displaying messages covering longer distances in short duration: Multimedia vans, Auto-rickshaw campaigns, bicycle rallies etc.
3. Participatory approach using theatrical performance and presentation in public places: Street plays, Padyatras, flash mobs, sloganeering, oath-taking rallies, signature campaigns, public meetings etc.
4. Cultural events and competitions - organizing Youth Parliaments, creating youth manifestoes, short film contests, rangoli contests etc.
5. Other approaches include door to door campaigns, games for the purpose of educating or conveying messages, using unconventional methods like lighting oil lamps in the formation of a message: "acche ko chuune, sacche ko chunne".
6. Advocacy and Networking through stakeholders' consultations, seminars, discussions, youth parliaments, training of trainers etc.

Madhya Pradesh Election Watch

About Us

Chapter 11: About Us

A group of Professors from Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad set up Association for Democratic Reforms in August 1999. They filed a Public Interest Litigation in Delhi High Court in 1999 asking for disclosure of criminal, financial and educational background of candidates contesting elections. Based on this, the Supreme Court in 2002 and subsequently in 2003 made background disclosure mandatory for candidates to disclose in their affidavits criminal, financial and educational background to be submitted to the Election Commission of India.

ADR has been conducting Election Watches since 2002. The first election watch was conducted by ADR in 2002 for Gujarat Assembly Elections whereby detailed analysis of the backgrounds of candidates contesting elections was provided to help the electorate make an informed choice during polls. Since then ADR has conducted Election Watches for almost all state and parliament elections in collaboration with the National Election Watch. There is now an Election Watch chapter present in each state in the country working as a part of National Election Watch.

ADR along with the NEW has also increased its efforts towards increasing transparency and accountability in the functioning of political parties. After a Central Information Commission (CIC)'s order in 2008, it started analyzing and disseminating information on the Income Tax Returns and Donation details of political parties. In 2013, based on a complaint filed by ADR and Shri Subhash Agarwal, the CIC declared 6 national parties as 'public authority' under the Right to Information Act.

As a part of the same effort, ADR has also increased its engagement with political parties with the objective of garnering their support in reforming the political system.

Strategic litigation is another tool employed by ADR to push for required reforms in the political and electoral system. ADR has intervened as well as filed several PILs, some of which have resulted in landmark judgments.
